Subject: Suggestion from Hon'ble Prime Minister for implementation of action point raised during the DGSP/IGSP Conference, 2024- regd.

Sir/Madam,

Reference is invited to letter dated 30.04.2025 (copy enclosed) received from Narcotics Control Bureau on the subject cited above informing that the Hon'ble PM while chairing the DGSP/IGSP Conference at Bhubaneswar, Odisha from 29.11.2024 to 01.12.2024 suggested as under and requested further necessary action in this regard:

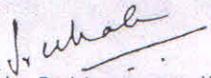

"Use of Parent - Teacher meetings to sensitize parents, including through informative videos, to identify early warning signs and behavioral changes which could be sign of narcotic usage. Sensitization of people on the issue of narcotics through religious leaders and social activists to be ensured"

24/9/25

2. It is requested that school authorities under your control may be directed to take necessary action on the above mentioned suggestion and report the action taken to this Department.

3. It is high time to protect our future generation from substance abuse and prevent the initiation of drug use among young adults by raising awareness about the dangers of drugs. There is a need to relay a strong message to protect future generations and allow everyone the chance to claim their right to health.
