STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE (SOP)

Reform Utsav and Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas (JJGD) 2026

Celebration from 1st November 2026 to 15th November 2026 and organisation of Reforms Utsav from 2nd October 2026 to 25th December 2026

1. Background

The Government of India has declared 15th November, the birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda, the legendary freedom fighter and tribal leader of the country, as Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas (JJGD), to commemorate the contributions of tribal communities in national history and culture and to motivate the coming generations towards protecting our cultural heritage and national pride. The Ministry of Tribal Affairs has been celebrating JJGD every year since 2021.

This year, it has been decided to celebrate Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas from 1st November 2026 to 15th November 2026. In addition, a Reforms Utsav shall be organised from 2nd October 2026 to 25th December 2026 to showcase and promote key reforms and initiatives of the Ministry through meaningful, participatory and outcome-oriented activities at the State/UT level.

This Standard Operating Procedure is issued for the guidance of Tribal Welfare Departments (TWDs) and Tribal Research Institutes (TRIs) of all States/UTs for planning, organising, documenting and reporting the events and activities under JJGD 2026 and the Reforms Utsav.

2. Approach

A whole-of-government and whole-of-India approach shall be adopted for the celebrations. Accordingly, events in State capitals, districts and blocks should focus on enabling public participation on a large scale. Participation should be wide, and messaging should form an important part of the celebration. The celebrations should lead to active participation in meaningful and creative activities relating to tribal art, culture, heritage, history, education, health, livelihoods and socio-economic development.

3. Objectives of the celebrations

i. To establish Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas as an annual occasion to honour and pay tribute to tribal freedom fighters.

ii. To secure enthusiastic public participation by celebrating the occasion as a cultural festival.

iii. To emphasise the significance of the day as an occasion of national pride in the diverse tribal population of the country and their immense potential.

iv. To create awareness among tribal communities regarding the reforms, schemes and initiatives of the Ministry, and to facilitate their access to entitlements and benefits.

4. Period of the celebrations

Sl. No.	Component	Period
1	Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas (JJGD) 2026	1st November 2026 to 15th November 2026
2	Reforms Utsav	2nd October 2026 to 25th December 2026
3	Floral tributes to Bhagwan Birsa Munda and other tribal freedom fighters	15th November 2026

5. Proposed venue of the celebrations

The celebrations should be carried out by identifying prominent thoroughfares (streets/roads) or public spaces in State capitals and districts, where artists, students of schools and higher education institutions (including nearby EMRS and Ashram schools), tribal entrepreneurs, tribal artisans, NGOs working with tribal populations, SHG and VDVK members from tribal communities, other stakeholders in tribal matters, as well as the general public, may participate in a festive atmosphere. The State Government/District Administration may finalise the venue with the requisite permissions and facilities for conduct of the programmes in a participatory manner.

Activities may also be organised within educational institutions, hostels, residential institutions, TRI premises, museums, tribal haats and community centres, so as to widen the reach of the celebrations.

6. Participants

i. Hon'ble Ministers, public representatives, Padma and other awardees and prominent personalities.
ii. Students of EMRS, Ashram schools and other educational institutions from nearby areas.
iii. Participation by educational institutions in large numbers.
iv. Members of various VDVKs along with their products for display/sale, for which necessary arrangements may be made.
v. Artists participating in cultural performances. Preference may be given to highly talented artists who have had less exposure to such events, so that the event also serves as a talent discovery forum.
vi. Tribal artisans, craftspersons, GI product holders, tradition bearers and knowledge holders.
vii. NGOs and civil society organisations associated with tribal matters.
viii. General public.

The ambience of the venue should be that of a celebratory festival which draws public participation, and efforts should be made to maximise people's participation.

7. Arrangements for floral tributes

Space for paying floral tributes to the photograph/statue of Bhagwan Birsa Munda and other tribal freedom fighters of the State may be designated at the venue. Floral tributes shall be organised in educational institutions, hostels and residential institutions on 15th November 2026. The State Government and District Administration shall make necessary administrative, logistic and security arrangements for these events in accordance with the anticipated participation.

8. Display and performance

i. Display of material on Central and State Government schemes and on the reforms and initiatives of the Ministry.
ii. Posters and digital content on tribal heroes may be displayed. Content relating to the freedom struggles of tribal communities and leaders will be shared by the Ministry of Tribal Affairs. The State Government may use this material as well as its own authenticated material for such displays.
iii. Performances of various kinds, including tribal dance, tribal storytelling, tribal puppetry, tribal drama or any art form depicting tribal themes, such as the mission to eliminate sickle cell disease, schemes of the Central and State Governments for tribal development, the efforts of tribal freedom fighters, success stories of tribal achievers and tribal entrepreneurship, may be facilitated.

iv. Performances on the above themes may be encouraged from the general public and youth, so as to promote a spirit of participation in the celebrations.

9. Illustrative list of activities for JJGD 2026

The following activities may be undertaken as part of the JJGD celebrations during 1st to 15th November 2026:

a. Floral tributes to Bhagwan Birsa Munda and other tribal freedom fighters in educational institutions, hostels and residential institutions on 15.11.2026.

b. Organisation of age-appropriate training/workshops on tribal art, dance, music, crafts and culture, on the contributions of tribal communities to Indian society, particularly to the freedom struggle, and on protection of the environment.

c. Honouring of tribal achievers, including outstanding tribal scholars and other accomplished personalities, who can serve as role models for students and youth.

d. Outreach activities with tribal communities by students, including participation in Swachhata activities, plantation initiatives, Each One Teach One, enrolment in NSS/NCC/MY Bharat and other community-oriented activities.

e. Cultural events such as tribal dance, drama, music, painting and other traditional arts and crafts associated with tribal communities.

f. Quizzes on tribal freedom fighters, tribal culture and heritage, traditional arts and crafts and other aspects of tribal history and heritage.

10. Reforms Utsav (15th October 2026 to 15th November 2026)

A Reforms Utsav shall be organised from 15th October 2026 to 15th November 2026 to showcase key reforms and initiatives of the Ministry relating to tribal welfare and development. The activities should ensure meaningful participation and visibility of these reforms and initiatives among tribal communities and other stakeholders. All TRIs shall organise suitable activities during this period in alignment with the following themes:

a. Scholarship Access Camps for tribal students, including scholarship application facilitation, documentation support, digital helpdesks and Aadhaar enrolment and seeding for Pre-Matric, Post-Matric and Top-Class scholarships.
b. Living History Exhibitions on tribal freedom fighters, including heritage walks, storytelling, theatre performances and oral-history and archival documentation.
c. Research and Innovation Showcases by TRIs, including research poster competitions, innovation challenges and exhibitions of institutional best practices and achievements.
d. Community-led documentation drives on tribal culture and heritage, including vanishing art forms, traditional music and musical instruments, tribal cuisine, languages, folklore, oral traditions and indigenous knowledge, including oral-history recordings and digital heritage archives.
e. Registration and profiling camps for tribal artisans and artists, including digital documentation, live craft demonstrations and showcases of traditional skills and art forms.
f. GI Tribal Craft Fairs and product showcases, including live craft demonstrations, artisan–buyer interactions, GI product displays and promotion of traditional crafts.
g. Tribal Language Festivals comprising multilingual storytelling, tribal-language theatre and poetry, folk-song competitions, language games and documentation of oral traditions
h. Adi Vaani promotion and onboarding drives, including live demonstrations of the application, installation camps in schools, EMRS, hostels and colleges.

11. Branding, publicity and media coverage

i. The Ministry of Tribal Affairs logo must be prominently featured on all banners, hoardings and other publicity material related to the events.
ii. Hoardings and banners should be displayed at key locations, including metro stations, State Government offices, educational institutions, and other suitable public places, to ensure broader public visibility and awareness about the event.
iii. Each State must issue a pre-event press release and submit newspaper clippings and HD photographs to the Ministry of Tribal Affairs on the designated JJGD web portal for documentation and publicity.

iv. All social media posts relating to the celebrations shall use the following common hashtags to ensure uniform visibility and consolidated online reach: #JanJatiyaGauravDivas #JJGD2026 #BhagwanBirsaMunda #AdiVaani #ReformsUtsav. States/UTs may additionally use State-specific or regional-language hashtags.

v. Wide publicity may be given through print, electronic and social media, and through official social media handles of the State Government, TWD and TRI, using appropriate hashtags relating to Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas.

vi. QR codes linking to the Adi Vaani application shall be prominently printed on all banners, hoardings, standees, backdrops, invitation cards, certificates and other publicity material for JJGD and Reforms Utsav events, so that participants may scan and download the application on the spot. Dedicated Adi Vaani standees may be installed at entry points, registration desks, exhibition stalls and near the main stage at all event venues, and volunteers may be deployed to assist participants in downloading and using the application. TWDs/TRIs shall endeavour to maximise downloads and active use of Adi Vaani during the celebration period.

12. Documentation and reporting on the JJGD portal

All TWDs/TRIs shall report the details of events and activities on the designated JJGD web portal, https://adiprasaran.tribal.gov.in/JJGD/, as follows:

i. Total number of events, date of event, type of events, activities conducted and number of participants shall be mentioned on the portal.

ii. A brief write-up of each activity must be accompanied by HD photographs and videos, and the same shall be uploaded on the designated portal.

iii. For the Reforms Utsav, the date of activity, type of activity, number of participants/beneficiaries and key outputs shall also be reported, along with a brief write-up and HD photographs/videos.

iv. Details of events already concluded/held shall be uploaded on the portal immediately.

v. Details of all subsequent events shall be uploaded within one week of the conclusion of the event.

vi. All States/TRIs shall strictly adhere to the approved timelines and allocated funds for the scheduled events.

13. Other facilities to be provided

i. Food stalls: The occasion may be used to popularise Shree Anna (millets), tribal food and tribal cuisine.

ii. Temporary stalls for sale/display of tribal products by tribal artisans/TRIFED: These will enable a vibrant display of various tribal products.

iii. Security: The itinerary of visiting dignitaries may be obtained from the respective offices, which should coordinate with the concerned departments for security, protocol and logistics. Arrangements for public security will also need to be made.

iv. Drinking water, sanitation and toilet facilities: Adequate arrangements shall be made at all venues, including for participants with disabilities.

v. Other logistics: Arrangements for stage, sound, seating, shamiana, first aid and medical assistance may be made as per the scale of the event.

14. Financial support

The State Government/District Administration/UT Administration may make necessary budgetary arrangements for the events to be held in all districts, especially those with tribal population. Supporting grants will also be provided by the Ministry of Tribal Affairs under the scheme of Support to TRI.
